

The New Digital TerrAIIn: a look at generative artificial intelligence

Winter Term 2024 • UNIV 4133/5133 •
1.0 credit (workshop: $100 tuition)

This online class will feature live Zoom roundtable discussions by emerging leaders in the field of generative AI. Individual session subjects include “Using AI Tools,” “AI’s Commercial Impact,” AI and Governance,” and “AI and Higher Education.” The class requires no previous coursework and is designed for those interested in finding out more about the capacities of AI and how it may come to shape our world.

Instructor: Dr. Jim O’Loughlin, Professor and Department Head, Languages & Literatures

Scheduled Roundtable Participants Include:

Dr. Abram Anders

Iowa State University Student Innovation Center

Dr. Disa Cornish

University of Northern Iowa Dept. of Nursing & Public Health

Sen. Chris Cournoyer

Iowa State Senate Technology Committee

Brad Dwyer

Founder & Chief Technology Officer, Roboflow

Dr. Doug Shaw

University of Northern Iowa Department of Mathematics

Dr. Barrett Thomas

University of Iowa Tippie College of Business