

The New Digital TerrAIIn: a look at generative artificial intelligence

Join emerging leaders in the field of generative AI for discussions about practical, social, ethical, and governance-based issues. These online (Zoom) discussions are free and open to the public. Hosted by Dr. Jim O'Loughlin, University of Northern Iowa Department of Languages & Literatures.

All hour-long roundtable sessions are at 7:00 PM CST. Schedule subject to change.

Scheduled Roundtable Participants Include:

Dr. Abram Anders

Iowa State University Student Innovation Center

Dr. Disa Cornish

University of Northern Iowa Dept. of Nursing & Public Health

Sen. Chris Cournoyer

Iowa State Senate Technology Committee

Brad Dwyer

Founder & Chief Technology Officer, Roboflow

Dr. Doug Shaw

University of Northern Iowa Department of Mathematics

Dr. Barrett Thomas

University of Iowa Tippie College of Business

Tuesday, January 2

Using AI Tools

What AI tools are UNI faculty already using in their teaching and research?

Thursday, January 4

AI and Governance

What needs to (or can) be done to ensure the ethical use of AI?

Tuesday, January 9

AI's Commercial Impact

How is AI already affecting business and the workplace? What does the future hold?

Thursday, January 11

AI and Higher Education

How are Regents institutions responding to the opportunities and challenges of AI?

