

SCIENCE EDUCATION UPDATE CONFERENCE

SAVE THE DATE

April 12, 2024

Funded by a foundation grant provided by Dr. Robert & Brenda Good

Welcome to the 2024 UNI Science Education Update Conference which is a one-day conference for current and future teachers on the UNI Campus!

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Kevin Smith, UNI alumnus, DPM and PhD, Dean of the College of Podiatric Surgery at Des Moines University

- Provides an opportunity for existing and future teachers including UNI alumni to network
- Focuses on issues and topics related to teaching Grades K-12 Science and STEM
- Collaboration with UNI STEM Departments & Support Services
- Keynote Presentation; Presentation and Workshop Sessions; Networking Focus Groups; and Exhibits
- Access to instructional resources & strategies for the classroom
- Lunch and refreshments provided along with raffle for prizes and gifts
- Sub-reimbursements to K-12 teachers who register early
- Opportunity to participate in OpenSciEd High School Science Saturday (April 13, 2024) Workshop which includes a stipend and the opportunity to earn university credit (undergraduate or graduate)
- Call for Presentations, Workshops, and Exhibits at <https://chas.uni.edu/science-ed/outreach/science-education-update-conference>
- RSVP for UNI Science Education Update Conference (Friday, April 12) at <https://events.blackthorn.io/1f1d7Ba7/4a3H3sBQ5z>
- RSVP for OpenSciEd High School Science Saturday Workshop (April 13) at <https://events.blackthorn.io/1f1d7Ba7/5a3H3s1NZUv>
- Upcoming Events <https://events.blackthorn.io//00D1f000001d7Ba/g/0jzMrkb897>

For more information contact:

Lawrence Escalada, Director of UNI Science Education

Lawrence.Escalada@uni.edu

or visit www.science-ed.uni.edu